Government Industrial Establishments

* 63 Q.—SRI S. MADHAVAN : Will the Hon. the Minister for Finance be pleased to state—

(a) whether the Government industrial undertakings are exempted from the operation of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946; and

(b) if so, the reasons thereof?

THE HON. SRI M. BHAKTAVATSALAM : (a) Yes.

(b) The workmen employed in the Government industrial establishments are already governed by Fundamental and Supplementary Rules framed by the Government. Exemption was therefore granted by this Government during 1947, to the Government Industrial Undertakings from the provisions of the Act under the powers vested in the Government under section 14 of the Act. The Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946, itself has been amended by the Central Act 36 of 1956 that came into force from 10th March 1957 and section 13-B has made the provisions of the Act inapplicable to industrial establishments wherein the Fundamental and Supplementary Rules, Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, Civil Services (Temporary Service) Rules, Revised Leave Rules, Civil Service Regulations, Civilians in Defence Service (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules or the Indian Railway Establishment Code or any other rules or regulations that may be notified in this behalf by the Government apply.
